

“Who is this Jesus?”

by Nicole Woods (Mississauga City Baptist Church)

In the Old Testament: – In Genesis, He is the Creator God. – In Exodus, He is the Redeemer. – In Leviticus, He is your sanctification. – In Numbers, He is your guide. – In Deuteronomy, He is your teacher. – In Joshua, He is the mighty conqueror. – In Judges, He gives victory over enemies. – In Ruth, He is your kinsman, your lover, your redeemer. – In 1 Samuel, He is the root of Jesse. – In 2 Samuel, He is the Son of David. – In 1 Kings and 2 Kings, He is King of Kings and Lord of Lords. – In 1st and 2nd Chronicles, He is your intercessor and High Priest. – In Ezra, He is your temple, your house of worship. – In Nehemiah, He is your mighty wall, protecting you from your enemies. – In Esther, He stands in the gap to deliver you from your enemies. – In Job, He is the arbitrator who not only understands your struggles, but has the power to do something about them. – In Psalms, He is your song—and your reason to sing. – In Proverbs, He is your wisdom, helping you make sense of life and live it successfully. – In Ecclesiastes, He is your purpose, delivering you from vanity. – In the Song of Solomon, He is your lover, your Rose of Sharon. – In Isaiah, He is the mighty Counsellor, the prince of peace, the everlasting father, and more. He's everything you need. – In Jeremiah, He is your balm of Gilead, the soothing salve for your sin-sick soul. – In Lamentations, He is the ever-faithful one upon whom you can depend. – In Ezekiel, He is your wheel in the middle of a wheel—the one who assures that dry, dead bones will come alive again. – In Daniel, He is the ancient of days, the ever-lasting God who never runs out of time. – In Hosea, He is your faithful lover, always beckoning you to come back—even when you have abandoned Him. – In Joel, He is your refuge, keeping you safe in times of trouble. – In Amos, He is the husbandman, the one you can depend on to stay by your side. – In Obadiah, He is Lord of the Kingdom. – In Jonah, He is your salvation, bringing you back within His will. – In Micah, He is judge of the nation. – In Nahum, He is the jealous God. – In Habakkuk, He is the Holy One. – In Zephaniah, He is the witness. – In Haggai, He overthrows the enemies. – In Zechariah, He is Lord of Hosts. – In Malachi, He is the messenger of the covenant.

In the New Testament: – In Matthew, He is king of the Jews. – In Mark, He is the servant. – In Luke, He is the Son of Man, feeling what you feel. – In John, He is the Son of God. – In Acts, He is Saviour of the world. – In Romans, He is the righteousness of God. – In I Corinthians, He is the rock that followed Israel. – In II Corinthians, He the triumphant one, giving victory. – In Galatians, He is your liberty; He sets you free. – In Ephesians, He is head of the Church. – In Philippians, He is your joy. – In Colossians, He is your completeness. – In I Thessalonians, He is your hope. – In II Thessalonians, He is your glory. – In I Timothy, He is your faith. – In II Timothy, He is your stability. – In Titus He is your reason for serving. – In Philemon, He is your benefactor. – In Hebrews, He is your perfection. – In James, He is the power behind your faith. – In I Peter, He is your example. – In II Peter, He is your purity. – In I John, He is your life. – In II John, He is your pattern. – In III John, He is your motivation. – In Jude, He is the foundation of your faith. – In Revelation, He is your coming King.